Sir:

1. I am William Sanford, the named inventor in this patent application.
2. I am a citizen of the United States, residing in Prescott Wisconsin and employed by the Smead Manufacturing Company, the assignee of this patent application, and have been so employed at least since the invention of the this application.
3. Prior to the filing date of this invention on 17 October 2001, and at least as early as Oct 24, 2000, I conceived of the claimed invention.
4. After conception of the invention, I reduced the inventions to practice by making prototypes thereof. This conception and reduction to practice occurred before Oct. 24, 2000 because a prototype of the product was shown at the ARMA convention of that date.
5. The invention was introduced as part of a product line known as "Click Strip™" which was introduced as part of the Smeadlink® product line.

6. The attached photographs were taken at the above mentioned ARMA show in Las Vegas in Oct 2000.
7. Display included actual display of Smeadlink® products including the ClickStrip® product which was available for the public to view and touch.
8. The Clickstrip® product includes labels which conform to those of my patent application as shown in the attached drawings.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements are made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. §1001 and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
